Introduction to Trauma-Informed Care (1 Hour)

Attendees will receive an overview of key elements to help build their foundation of trauma-informed care. This includes an introduction to adverse childhood experiences, the impact of trauma and trauma-informed care. This presentation is derived from training received from international speaker Becky Haas.

Building Community Resilience (1 Hour)

Attendees will learn about R.O.L.E.S., a five-step process that empowers individuals to identify their negative personal triggers to create a mental paradigm shift rooted in positivity and successful outcomes. This presentation is derived from training received from Community Resilience Initiative Course 1.

Implementing Trauma-Informed Care Principles (1 Hour)

Attendees will receive an overview of the impact of trauma and an introduction to the six key principles of a trauma-informed approach. The information in this course will serve as a foundation to help you on your trauma-informed journey. This presentation is derived from Basics of Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs), Building Resilience and Using a Trauma-Informed Approach training received from international speaker Becky Haas.

Creating a Thriving Community (1 Hour)

Attendees will learn about the K.I.S.S. framework for building community capacity through resilience. This model serves as a public health framework for community development which emphasizes building human capital to foster stronger communities that can thrive and effectively manage the impact of risk. This presentation is derived from training received from Community Resilience Initiative Course 1.

Adverse Childhood Experiences (1.5 Hours)

Attendees will learn about the ACE study, why ACEs have an immense effect on people's lives and what we can all do to dramatically improve health and resilience for future generations. This presentation is derived from training received from ACE Interface and is conducted by an approved master ACE Trainer.

Discovering We Are Resilient (1 Hour)

Attendees will learn how a resilient mindset can help us become stronger emotionally by using centering skills and help identify how resilience can be hindered. Attendees will also gain an understanding of where cultural and protective patterns come from and how they can help build resilience. This presentation is derived from training received from Dovetail Learning's We Are Resilient training.

Jason Frey

ABOUT THIS SESSION

In this session, participants will learn how they can support clients using trauma-informed approaches when conducting assessments for immigration diagnostic evaluation in US Citizenship and Immigration Services, Immigration Court, or similar environments that involve interviews and assessments. This session will also focus on identifying trauma responses that may affect credibility or recall in legal interviews and on protecting clients from re-traumatization and cultural invalidation.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Jason Frey, MS, has a distinguished background in law enforcement and clinical mental health. He retired from the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department as a detective specializing in crimes against children where he served as lead detective and liaison to the Los Angeles Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force. As a forensic interviewer and expert witness, he worked directly with survivors and educated courts on trauma, abuse dynamics and evidence interpretation. Internationally recognized, Jason presents on trauma affecting military personnel, first responders, survivors of human trafficking and immigrant communities, and trains immigration attorneys on effective collaboration with mental health professionals. He is currently the CEO of Immigration Diagnostic Evaluations Academy that trains licensed clinicians nationwide in immigration evaluations and expert testimony. In 2024, he received the President's Volunteer Achievement Award for Lifetime Achievement.

Romero Davis

ABOUT THIS SESSION

In this session, participants will hear about common myths surrounding male survivors of trauma and victimization and deepen their understanding of the unique barriers these survivors face. Attendees will learn practical strategies for creating a welcoming, supportive environment and introduced to key concepts for building trust and effectively serving male survivors.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Romero Davis is the CEO and founder of Collective for Justice & Growth, a prevention-focused organization serving men and boys. With more than 25 years of experience in the social sector, Romero leads national efforts to strengthen community and family well-being and to advance equity and support system transformation. His work spans juvenile justice, social determinants of health, culturally responsive practice and community visioning and planning. He collaborates with educators, law enforcement and justice and family-serving agencies across the United States. Romero leads multiple initiatives in partnership with the U.S. Department of Justice including the Office for Victims of Crime and the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention. He is also a qualified administrator of the Intercultural Development Inventory supporting leaders in strengthening collaboration and cultural competence.
